JAMESTOWN HIGH SCHOOL

JAMESTOWN - NEW YORK

NINETEEN HUNDRED FIFTY-TWO

FOREWORD

THROUGH our theme, we are trying to compare the wonderful events of our high school life to those fanciful adventures of Alice in Wonderland. Lewis Carroll's book is a collection of exciting episodes which his lovely Alice experiences, and we are honored to have Alice tour J. H. S., which is to us a true wonderland.

Our division pages, and our copy as well, join together to convey the idea of "Alice in the Wonderland of J.H.S." Other characters familiar to readers of the famous book, appear on our pages to represent people whom we know so well.

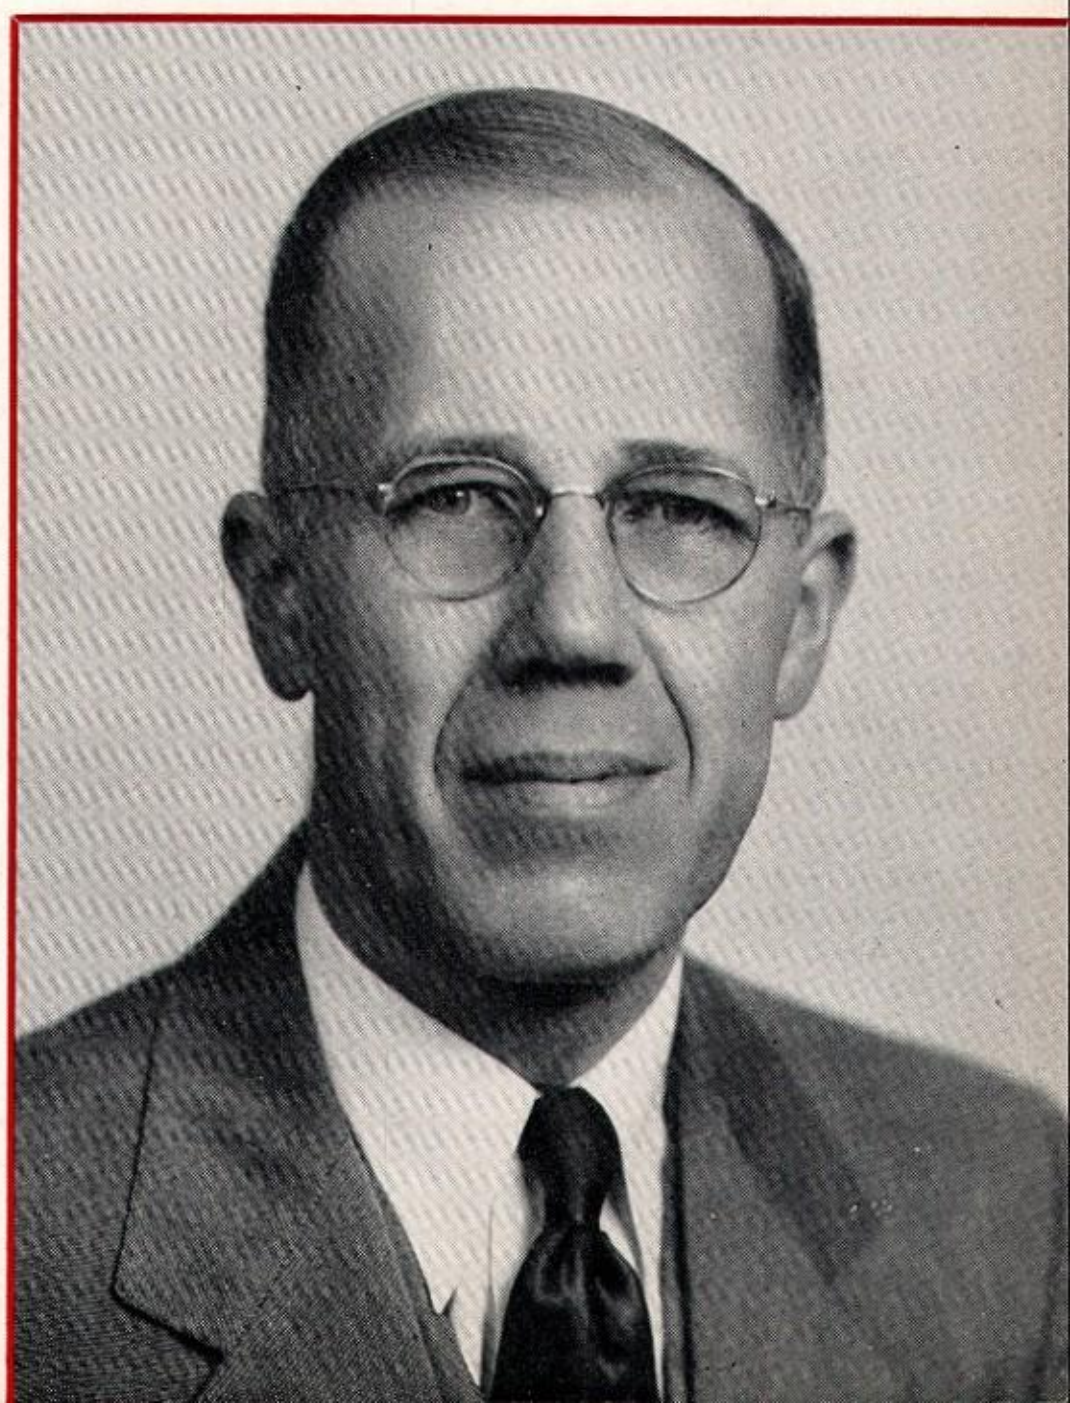
The school, the faculty, and our many other friends have made our stay at J. H. S. a memorable experience, a truly wonderland of adventure.

DEDICATION

WE, the Class of 1952, dedicate this book to Mr. Herbert A. Beckman, whose excellent planning and advice have guided us through three memorable years. His untiring efforts and unlimited enthusiasm have greatly aided us in preparation for carrying out our motto, "Enter to learn; go forth to serve."

To

MR. HERBERT A. BECKMAN



Dr. Carlyle C. Ring, Mr. Hugh L. Gillis.

THE ADMINISTRATION

Dr. Carlyle C. Ring, Superintendent of Schools, Mr. Hugh L. Gillis, Assistant Superintendent, and the Board of Education efficiently administer the educational program of the community.

Mr. Gillis is retiring after 32 years with the Jamestown School System, during which he has acted in the capacity of teacher and principal, and he is now finishing his term as Co-ordinator of Instruction and Director of Curriculum.

The Board of Education is presided over by Mr. Arthur R. Smith, President, and Mr. Weldon M. Nelson, Vice President.

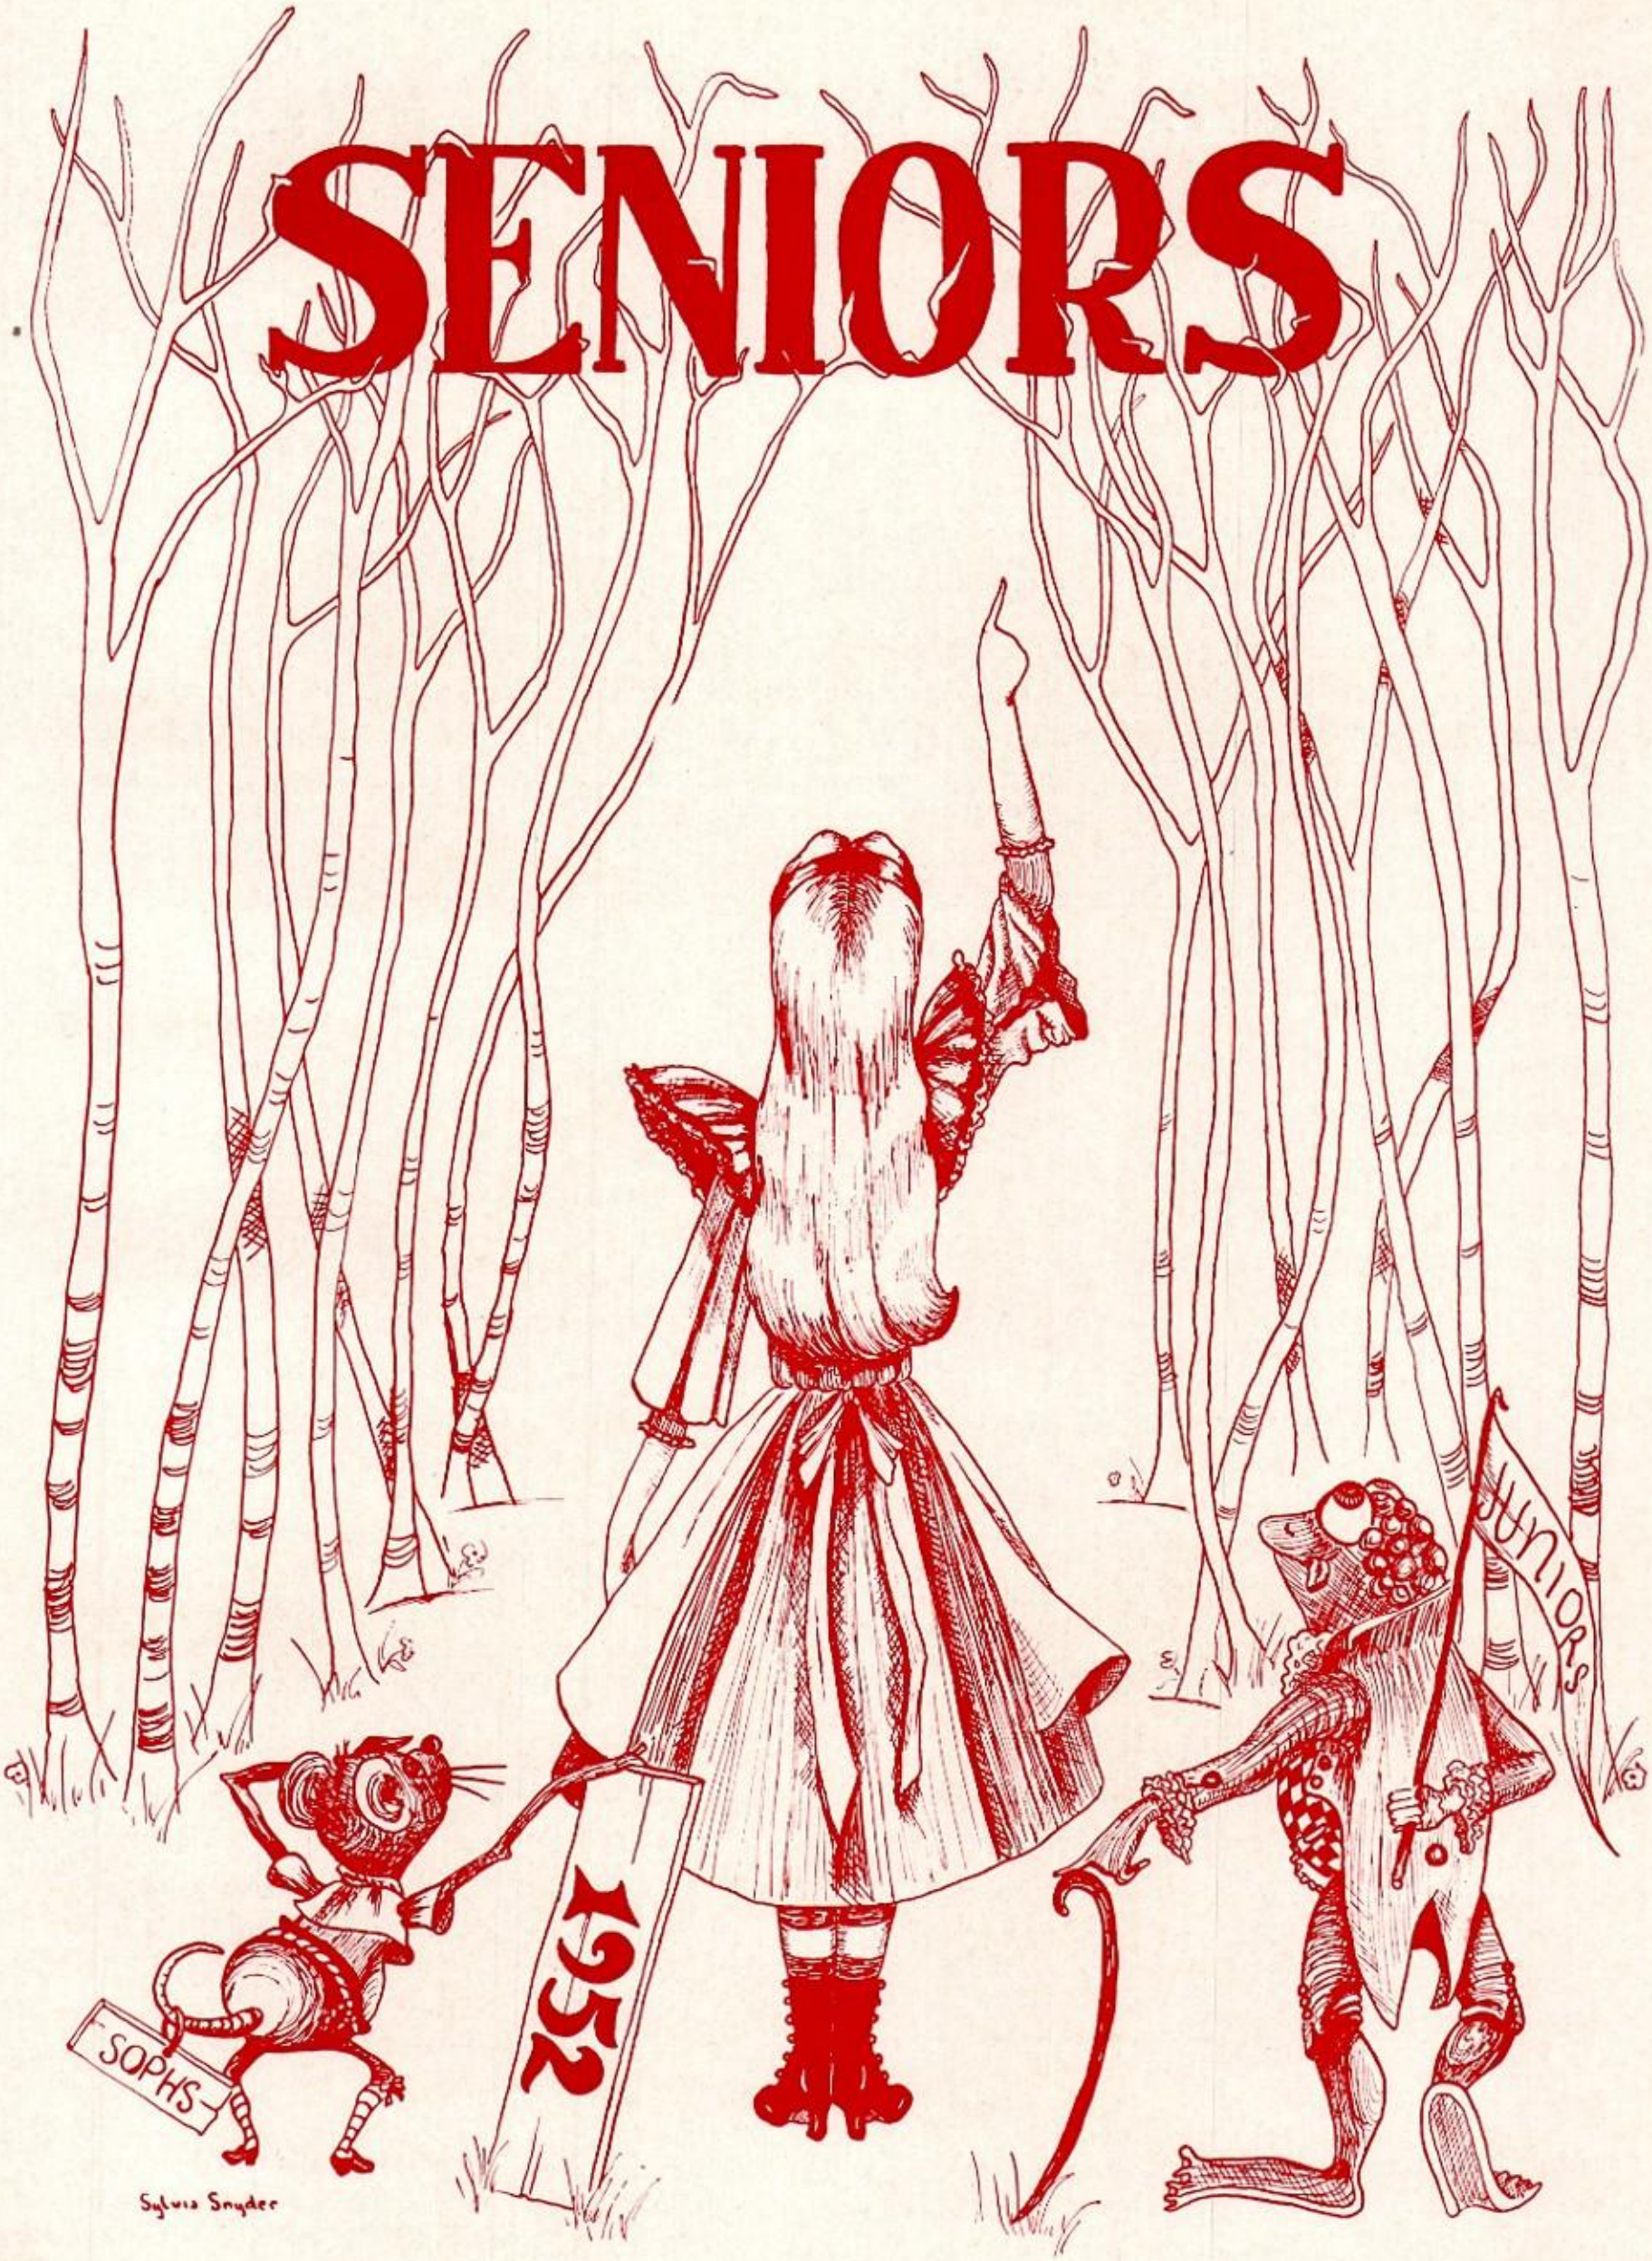
SENIORS



ALICE COMPLETES EVENTFUL

When Alice first stepped into her wonderland in 1949, everything seemed strange and new to her. However, after becoming acquainted, she and her schoolmates chose the following worthy leaders:

President ..... GUST SERVIS
Vice President ..... DANIEL ANDERSON
Secretary ..... DONNA JOHNSON
Treasurer ..... JAMES HEWITT
Keeper of Properties ..... DONALD POWERS
Historian ..... GRETCHEN OLSON

The first of many big events was the Sophomore Reception, held on November 8, which enabled the parents to meet the teachers. On March 24, Alice attended her first school party. The main attractions were the display of the class banner for the first time, and the crowning of the sophomore King and Queen, Gust Servis and Sylvia Snyder. Alice and her schoolmates also enjoyed the round and square dancing with the music provided by the School Dance Band.

"Enter to learn; go forth to serve" was selected as the motto, with American Beauty red and white as colors, and the American Beauty rose, the flower.

Alice's second year in her wonderland proved to be twice as eventful as her first. Of course, a new year meant new officers with the result as follows:

President ..... DANIEL MCGRATH
Vice President ..... DONNA JOHNSON
Secretary ..... SYLVIA SNYDER
Treasurer ..... LARRY THOMAS
Keeper of Properties ..... DOLORES LABARBERA

THREE YEARS . . . AT J. H. S.

Most memorable of all events during 1950-51 was the Junior Class play, Our Miss Brooks, presented on February 24. It was during her Junior year that two of Alice's schoolmates, Nathane Aldrich and George Crozier, were chosen to attend Girls State and Boys State. Ending this second year, the Juniors acted as hosts at the Junior-Senior Reception which was held in the gym. The entertainment included a floor show, a grand march, refreshments, and dancing.

Alice's third year, although her happiest, has also been her saddest, for she realizes that soon she must leave her beloved wonderland. With pride Alice points to Donna M. Johnson who was chosen by the senior girls and teachers to qualify in the essay contest, sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution.

The play chosen by the seniors was Green Valley, presented March 22. It was not an easy play to produce, but was done effectively, and Alice is proud of its success.

As this book goes to press, Alice and her friends eagerly look forward to the Charles E. Hall Debate, and to the many activities of Commencement Week which include Baccalaureate, and the Senior Banquet, Class Night, the Senior Prom and finally Commencement.

The officers elected in the fall of her Senior year were:

President ..... Robert King
Vice President ..... Donna Johnson
Secretary ..... Marilyn Nunn
Treasurer ..... Donald Powers
Keeper of Properties ..... Larry Thomas

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the Class of 1952, do will and bequeath the following traditions and memories to all the forthcoming classes of J. H. S.:

1. George Crozier bestows his efficiency upon Andy Tangalos.
2. Gordon Benson bequeaths his easel to Clayton Berlinghoff.
3. Cynthia Blaisdell wills her winning smile to JoAnn Hohman.
4. Marjorie Nelson donates her wardrobe to Joan Avallone.
5. Betty Hoff abandons her Physics woes to Carol Fullerton.
6. James Dreyer leaves his stage hands to Marv Woodhall.
7. Althea Jones gives her grease paint to Sally Leonard.
8. Norman Hazzard leaves his height to Paul Johnson.
9. Dan Bargar wills his "slush pump" to Grant Mahoney.
10. Oreste Lucchesi leaves his educated toe to Ang Palermo.
11. Ken Martin bequeaths his basketball sharpshooting to Tommy Adams.
12. "Diesel" King gives his speed to Roger Bartholdson.
13. Bill Detally and Sam Tilaro leave their rivalry to Mr. Wilson and Mr. Beckman.
14. Chet Smith leaves Ann Russel's locker vacant.
15. Don Powers leaves Mr. Vosburg in peace (pieces?).
16. Julie Lindblom wills her musical ability to Louanne Larson.
17. Mr. Beckman's history class leaves for Gowanda.
18. Robert Stowell bequeaths his whistle to all the Junior Class wolves.
19. Pat Lund and Marge Nelson leave their "Einstein" theories to anyone who can figure them out.
20. Dave Johnson takes off along with Harvey.
21. "Sooky" Landy leaves the halls of JHS a lot quieter.
22. Nino Basile wills his million dollar smile to the Cheshire Cat.
23. Jim Hewitt leaves the girls still guessing.
24. Karl Bach gives his Levis to the farmers.

PEP SONG

By Class Song Committee

Tune—Coast Guard Song

We are the Class of '52
And onward goes our fame,
With red and white our colors bold
We proudly shout thy name.

"Enter to learn" will be our guide;
"Go forth to serve" our view,
And with our banner flying high
Aye, Jamestown, we cheer for you!

CLASS SONG

By Class Song Committee

Tune—Love's Old Sweet Song

Jamestown High, we hail thee,
Pledging ourselves anew,
Bringing red for courage,
White for service true.

Entered we to learn;
Go we forth to serve,
With thy inspiration,
Class of '52.

THE J. H. S. ALMA MATER

MILTON J. FLETCHER, Superintendent Emeritus (Deceased)

(Tune: Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms)

Alma Mater, thy name in honor we hold,
J. H. S., thou art dear to us all;
Swell the chorus of song, let thy praises be told
While together school days we recall.
The old study hall shrines, the joys of our youth,
'Tis the place where the "school spirit" bides—
The sprite that wrings jest from the gravest of truth,
And cheers us whatever betides.

And still, J. H. S., in the years that shall be,
Thy scenes will crowd memory's hour,
The class room, the "Gym", the old willow tree,
E'en the clock that keeps watch in the tower.
Thy boys and thy girls, thine today and for aye—
Spite of changes old time shall have seen—
We'll stand for the right, for the honor we'll try
Of our colors, the Red and the Green.

You are gone, dear old school, yet there stands in your place
One that makes our hearts quicken with pride
But you've left inspiration time ne'er can efface,
And with us you will always abide.
For your spirit lives on, the old school in the new,
As a seed lives again in its flower—
The old willow still whispers to us to be true
And the clock watches us from the tower.

JUNIORS CONTINUE FINE RECORD

Once again the Juniors entered school in September to begin their second year at Jamestown High. This time they felt much older and were sure they could achieve much more than they had done as sophomores. They resolved to continue their good record by having another eventful year and, thus far, have succeeded. Mr. Walter Alexis, class adviser, deserves much of the credit for the success of the class.

The very famous play, Cheaper by the Dozen was presented to the public by the Junior Class. It was a smash hit with the audience as well as with the members of the cast. Directed by Miss Myrtle Paetznick, the leading parts were played by Sally Leonard as Ernestine, Ralph Hallberg as father, and Nancy Lou Anderson as Anne. The play centered around the Gilbreth family of twelve.

Another feature of the year was the Assembly on March 28. It was discovered at that time that the Junior Class has hidden talent in its comedians, musicians, and dancers.

The Junior-Senior Reception in June is to be another gala affair. This has always been a project on the part of the Junior Class, with the seniors as guests.

The new song written by Barbara Plummer is very popular with every junior. The class colors are royal blue and white, and the flower is the white carnation. The motto is: "Success is the product of character and determination."

The class officers are:

President	Russell Guiffreda
Vice President	Alpine Johnson
Secretary	Thomas Adams
Treasurer	Maj Lis Eastman
Keeper of Properties	Jerry Moynihan

SOPHS CONCLUDE INITIAL YEAR AT J. H. S.

September 4, 1951 was the greatest day in the history of Jamestown High School. That date marked the entrance of the Class of 1954 to this school. After settling down and learning their way around, the 433 sophomores chose their cabinet of home room representatives and on October 11, 1951 elected the officers to lead them during 1951-1952. They are:

President	James Holmlund
Vice President	David Chall
Secretary	Joanne Bennett
Treasurer	Tom Michos
Keeper of Properties	David Berg
Historian	Carl Hammerstrom

On November 14, 1951, the sophomores held their reception to make their parents and teachers acquainted. Rosemary Leet was the chairman of the event. March 28, 1952 was the date of the never-to-be-forgotten Sophomore Party, directed by Martha Bloomstrand, Party Chairman. In the first week in May, the class of 1954 staged their last big event in their school year. The Sophomore Assembly, managed by Jane Hoover was a great success.

The Class flower is the Iris and the sophomore colors are blue and gold. Their motto is "Quo Vadis" which means "Whither goest thou?"

Under the leadership of Mrs. Elda M. Murphy, Class adviser, the class of '54 shows promise of being the best class that J. H. S. has ever had.

Respectfully submitted,
Carl Hammerstrom, Historian.

MEMORIES OF J. H. S. JOURNALISTS ARE MANY

Typewriter clacking and a busy hum of activity issue from room 211, as the J-Quill staff rushes to meet the press deadline. Junior journalists of Jamestown High School enjoy themselves and learn much about the basic principles of journalism while editing and publishing the J-Quill, which is filled with news, pictures, humor and features of school life.

At mid-term, Mrs. Florence O. Zanghi took over the reins as adviser while Mrs. Mary T. Walsh was on leave of absence.

"IT is a far, far better thing that we do (now), than we have ever done." That has been the motto of the various Red and Green staffs as they gathered together all the history of this past J. H. S. year to bring it to you in the annual. Since October, Red and Green headquarters in room 209 have been bustling with activity. The advisers and editor-in-chief, Nathane Aldrich, have sent forth photographers, typists, artists, caption-writers and members of the business and editorial staffs to prepare their individual contributions for the 1952 edition. If by accident the staff members picked up some journalistic principles during the year, that was also included in the plans for Red and Green.

The 1951 Red and Green won two awards; thus this year's staffs have had high standards to live up to. The first award was a first prize presented by the Western New York Interscholastic Press Association. The second was awarded by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association at a journalistic conference held last Fall at Syracuse University. Red and Green representatives to the conference left Jamestown on October 25, 1951 and spent two days in Syracuse gathering ideas and criticisms for the annual.

This year the business staff inaugurated a new and efficient method of collecting payments on the Red and Green and also supervised the photographing of the classes and the school organizations.

OTHER STAFFS OF RED AND GREEN

"United we stand, divided we fall!" Without the staff photographers, artists, typists and caption-writers the editorial staff of the Red and Green would not be worth very much. The photographers contributed snapshots and pictures of J. H. S. life; caption-writers put down descriptions of all the seniors; typists typed the material to make a neat annual; artists lettered and illustrated the pages to make them more interesing. Understand the hours of work that the members of these staffs have put in, and you will understand why the Red and Green offers them a round of hearty applause and thanks for their efforts. "Without you we couldn't exist!"

HONOR SOCIETY HAS BUSY SEASON

Who has set the high school hopping twice this year? Honor Society, of course! The Kappa Alpha Tau Chapter of National Honor Society held two square dances and, during December, the members had a hayride. The society, also, managed the annual concession stand at the basketball games, the proceeds being given to the Board of Education for the Scholarship Fund.

This year, Honor Society placed three books in the school library in memory of James Hayes, Mr. George Brown, and Mr. Norman Nelson. Members of Honor Society aided Mr. Williams and the Key Club by acting as assistant air raid wardens in practice drills, and again joined forces with Key Club in April to help promote Career Day.

The members of National Honor Society are selected by the faculty on the basis of four characteristics: character, scholarship, leadership, and service. Inductions of new members were held at the Sophomore Open House and again in March. The Society was under the able supervision of Miss Hattie Boak, faculty adviser.

HI-Y RECALLS MEMORABLE YEAR

The Hi-Y started its year off by initiating a group of 13 new members. A service club of about 40 members, it was organized for the purpose of helping young children and needy families. Besides its many service projects, it is also a social club.

Among its projects was the ghost walk for young boys of the YMCA. The members gave two Thanksgiving baskets and $50 to the National Hi-Y world service project. On December 17 they gave a Christmas party for underprivileged children. One of its social projects was the annual Hi-Y & Mi-Y Hallowe'en party. The Hi-Y also sponsored a football dance and was the first school organization to have a basketball team.

Early in the year a bill for more severe penalties for Narcotic peddlers was brought to the Chautauqua, Cattaraugus Hi-Y Tri-Hi-Y Legislature at Fredonia by Robert Nelson, James Roman, William Rude, Robert Davis, Paul Nelson and Robert Rude. Later, the club sent Robert Nelson to Albany on December 6-8 for the state Hi-Y Tri-Hi-Y Legislature. At Fredonia the bill was passed unanimously and at Albany, 76-6.

The club enjoyed a very good year except for the loss of one of its esteemed advisers, Mr. Norman F. Nelson. The club is setting up a permanent memorial for him. The advisers are: Mr. James H. Bray, Mr. Norman Janowsky, and Mr. Arthur Stearns.

Officers were:

MI-Y MIXES SERVICE AND FUN

In the hearts of many J. H. S. girls, Mi-Y will always be a treasured memory. There, the members learned to develop a spirit of warm friendliness and sisterhood that will follow them all through their lives.

Often they will recall the many good times they had as club members. The joint Mi-Y and Hi-Y Hallowe'en party at Camp Onyahsa was a huge success. Everyone wore jeans and took part in many games as well as square and round dancing. The Christmas season found them decorating the Y at "Hanging of the Greens". A hay-ride and caroling were also included in the vacation program. Dances, a Father-Daughter Banquet, basketball and volleyball games, bake sales, a camp weekend at Yawaca, and Senior Party helped increase the club activities.

Under a more serious side of the Y-teen program, came our Palm Sunday Vesper Service which was planned and presented by Hi-Y and Mi-Y. The month of February was devoted to brotherhood and the study of various religions.

To balance the social life were many service projects, such as selling tags for Creche and Cerebral Palsy, "Chocolates for Christmas", and parties for underprivileged children.

A few of the members attended the Midwinter Conference at Niagara Falls and a delegate will be sent to Summer Conference at Lake George.

All of these activities were carried out under the able guidance of Miss Janice Waggener, the Y-teen director.

Officers for Mi-Y this past year have been:

President	Loretta Constantine
Vice President	Yvonne Whitney
Secretary	Beverly Ruttenbur
Treasurer	Jean Jackson
Chaplain	Fern Hall

DINNER IS LEADING EVENT

"Please pass the 'arroz con pollo'." These and other words such as "guacamole" and "frijoles rancheros" were frequently overheard at the Spanish Club dinner for which the members prepared their own very tasty food. (See page 110 for a snapshot of the dinner.)

The club attended, with enthusiasm, several other special activities, including a piñata party the week before Christmas, a chocolate party honoring the French Club, and the presentation of a movie, Sesenta Segundos de Vida, on April 29.

Los Amigos de Espanol, under the guiding hand of Miss Ethel M. Swanson, meets every other Monday when the members learn songs, present skits and hear interesting reports about Hispanic civilization.

J.H.S. STUDENTS GO "ALL FRENCH"

Allons au Cercle Francais! Every Monday at 2:15 in Miss Barber's room, 309, members from classes in French I, French II, and French III meet under the name of Le Cercle Francais, or French Club, to those who couldn't guess. They've sent several packages of food and clothing to a certain orphanage in France; and games, spelling bees, or one-act plays (all in French, mind you!) serve as entertainment after the business meetings. On January 15, the French Club sponsored a movie, "The Scarlet Pimpernel", which was well attended by many high school students.

During the past fall term the officers were:

President	Sylvia Hayes
Vice President	Sylvia Snyder

KEY CLUB PROJECTS AID SCHOOL

Hearty yawns are characteristic of all Key Club members upon rising every Thursday morning to attend their weekly meeting held before regular school hours begin. Looking back over one of the most successful years as a service club, the members recall many times of serious work as well as fun. Outstanding was the State Key Club Convention held at Albany from which all gained valuable experience and useful pointers. Since this is a relatively new club, its achievements are not outstanding, but in the past year the Key Club has presented a new flag to the school, sponsored its annual Student-Faculty basketball game, and its members have served as Junior Air-Raid wardens and helped out in making College Day a success. Also the Club's lieutenant-governor has made several trips to neighboring towns in an effort to establish new Key Clubs in other high schools.

Much credit must be given to Mr. Colburn for the development of the club in the past year. Although it is a new organization, it promises to continue being a credit to the school, by gaining more strength, and serving the school in many more ways.

REC PROMOTES DANCES

Under the leadership of the Executive Committee, the Rec this year was directed by the faculty adviser, Mr. Thayer Pratt, and the student chairman, Dolores LaBarbera.

In the fall of 1943, a group of high school students, guided by Mrs. Florence Zanghi, organized the Rec. Each year the group elects four sophomores to be on the committee, replacing the graduated seniors.

For the fourth year, the Vikings have donated the use of their hall one night a month. The Christmas dance was held there, with Stew Snyder's music enjoyed by all. The students were presented with candy canes upon entering, and mistletoe was in abundance.

During the basketball season, the Rec held free dances after some of the games. Students danced to the music of Lennie Chiazzi, or to the old reliable juke box at these and other Friday night dances throughout the year.

On April 4, a free admission dance was held in the gymnasium, through the courtesy of the Musical Performance Trust Fund, which donated the services of Chuck Campbell.

In June, the Rec, as in past years, will contribute to the treasury of the senior class, helping to make the Senior Prom a bigger success. The cry, "See you at the Rec Friday night," is a familiar one in Jamestown High, and indicates the popularity of this organization.

Officers for the year were:

Chairman	Dolores LaBarbera
Vice Chairman	Janice Leathers
Secretary	Mary Sheridan

SALS DEVELOP LIBRARY SKILL

The SALS of JHS is a group of twenty girls who work in the high school and elementary libraries. The purpose of the organization is to acquaint the SALS with various books and to give them an opportunity, as a group, to carry on a social hour.

Meetings are held every other Wednesday under the direction of Miss Gwenlyn LaRoy. The name SALS originates from the initial letters in Student Assistant Library Staff.

During the year the SALS have participated in many activities. Proceeds from a paper drive conducted last fall were used to send a "Care" book package to Yugoslavia. Daniel Holmes, youth ambassador to Yugoslavia, spoke of his experiences and showed colored slides of his trip at one of the meetings.

On February 14, a Valentine party in the form of a traveling supper was held at the homes of members. The theme, which was carried out during the evening, was a vacation trip from New York State to Florida. Miss Woodcock showed colored slides of Florida after the supper.

On April 1, the SALS invited the Honor Society and faculty members to a book tea. An April Fool theme was carried out at the tea, which turned out to be a punch party, to the surprise of the guests. New shipments of books were displayed for the first time.

Later in the spring, another paper drive was conducted to earn money for sending additional "Care" book packages to Europe. The last meeting in June is to be a picnic outing.

The SALS hope to carry on their good times during the next few years.

This year's officers have been:

President ..... Sylvia Johnson
Vice President ..... Lora Radack
Secretary-Treasurer ..... Beverly Gustafson

FUTURE TEACHERS ORGANIZE

The Merton P. Corwin Future Teachers of America club, our newest organization in school, was given a charter at the installation service on February 28. This organization of prospective teachers is sponsored nationally by the National Education Association and locally by the Jamestown Teachers' Association. In naming the organization for our principal, the president of the club gave the following citation:

> "Mr. Corwin, your name, therein, will always remind us of the dignity, service and inspiration which are the marks of a real teacher. Your name will keep before us always a realization of the respect, the love, and the gratitude felt for a true teacher by those whom he has served."

Members of the Jamestown Teachers Association presented the charter members with the pins of the organization and welcomed them as junior members of the teaching profession.

The purposes of the Future Teachers of America club are: to learn more about the teaching profession, to cultivate character qualities essential in a good teacher, and to develop leadership.

The activities of the club will include the continuation of the teacherette program, and visits to New York State Teachers' Colleges.

Sponsors of this organization are Miss Helen Overs and Mr. Norman Janowsky.

Officers for this year include:

President	Donna M. Johnson
Vice President	Dolores LaBarbera
Secretary	Elaine Rockman
Treasurer	Clayton Berlinghoff, Jr.
Historian	Joanne Bennett

PINKIES SERVE COMMUNITY

Every year a group of high school junior girls is selected to work at the Jamestown General Hospital as pinkies. The name pinkie originated from the pink pinafores the girls wear. These girls are chosen for their interest in nursing, good scholarship, satisfactory personality and character traits.

Their duties consist of passing trays, feeding patients, making beds, giving baths and back rubs, and taking temperatures. After being trained for a period of time, they work voluntarily for several months. The pinkies change floors frequently for experiences in all types of cases.

Efficiency reports from the hospital are sent to the school every month to indicate the girl's qualifications for nursing. Thus, like their predecessors, since 1943, these girls are serving their community as well as gaining experience in their intended career.

During the last nine years, many pinkies have worked at the General Hospital and then gone on to further education in the field of Nursing. Now, many of these former pinkies are graduate nurses under whom the present pinkies work.

SOPHOMORES ACQUIRE ART OF DRAMA

"I'm late! I'm late! For a very important date!" No, it isn't the little white rabbit but a typical member of Playhouse scurrying off to a typical meeting. Playhouse is the dramatic club of those ambitious sophomores who have a flair for drama. Their hard-working adviser is Miss Myrtle Paetznick. To give everyone a chance to show his or her ability, different committees enacted skits at each meeting. Last fall, Playhouse aided the Pretenders with their play, Mother is a Freshman. Quite a few members participated in the production of Over the Rainbow. This spring some of the members of Playhouse attended the Play Festival at Fredonia, and others will go to Bloomington, Indiana for the conference this June. Also as spring advances they are making big plans for a play of their own, Home Sweet Homicide.

Pretenders Celebrate Thirtieth Year

On January 11, 1952, the Pretenders celebrated its 30th birthday by presenting a birthday assembly to the student body. Scenes from two of Pretenders' most recent productions, Chicken Every Sunday and Mother Is a Freshman were given. Moving pictures of the old school building and school activities were shown. As the assembly closed, a large birthday cake was set on the stage, as the members of Pretenders sang "Happy Birthday." Pretenders is one of the most active dramatic groups in J. H. S. and is under the effective leadership of Miss Myrtle Paetznick.

Pretenders' big production was Mother Is a Freshman given in the early fall. It is the story of a mother who decides to go to college with her daughter. It was another play showing the outstanding ability of this group of actors.

Members of Pretenders worked hard on the Thespian and the National Forensic League production of Over the Rainbow, both on stage and back stage.

Two other projects of the club this year are: to train student directors and to prepare for the Fredonia Play Festival in the spring. A group of students is also planning to attend the conference at Bloomington, Indiana, in June.

DRAMAS SCORE HITS AT J. H. S.

Much credit goes to the acting groups, to those who worked backstage, and to Miss Myrtle L. Paetznick, dramatics' adviser, for another year of spectacular hits. The three plays presented by the seniors, juniors, and Pretenders are respectively: Green Valley, Cheaper by the Dozen, and Mother Is a Freshman.

Have you ever seen such things as beans growing right on the stage of J. H. S., or seen a carrot or a potato that was bigger than you? If you saw the Senior Class Play, which was presented on March 22, you saw these things right before your own eyes. Green Valley, a comedy-fantasy by Frank Wattson, will always be remembered by those who saw it for its outstanding scenery, sound effects and costumes.

Growing up, man trouble, an old-fashioned father, and too many children were the chief problems of the stage adaptation of Ernestine and Frank Gilbreth's comedy, Cheaper by the Dozen. The Junior Class play, staged in November, was a big hit and will long be remembered as one of the most professional productions of this high school year. The whole cast teamed up to give a rollicking portrayal of the famous Gilbreth family.

Complications arose in the Pretenders' play, Mother Is a Freshman, given on October 20, when Susan Abbott's mother planned to go to college with her daughter. What would you do if your mother had made this decision—especially if you were a sophomore and your mother were a freshman? However, everything turns out well when Abigail falls in love with the zoology professor, and Susan, with Bobo.

THESPIANS
IS GOAL OF DRAMA ENTHUSIASTS

If you happened to walk into Room 210 early some morning this past year, chances are you have found Thespian Troupe 364 meeting, under the supervision of Miss Myrtle Paetznick. The wish of all interested in dramatics is to gain membership into this honorary dramatic society.

This year's activities got under way with a potluck supper at the home of one of the members. An informal induction of new members followed later in the fall. Over the Rainbow was the main project this year. It was a musical revue presented by Thespians and the National Forensic League. In March, a group of new Thespians was inducted at a formal ceremony in the J. H. S. auditorium.

In addition to these activities, Thespians are planning to attend the Second Annual Eastern Dramatic Conference at Reading, Pennsylvania, and also the Drama Festival at Fredonia. A banquet in June will bring the year's program to an end.

MUSICAL PRODUCTION IS A SUCCESS

JHS history was made on February 9, 1952, when one of the largest casts ever to assemble, presented "Over the Rainbow." The National Forensic League and the JHS Thespians combined forces to produce this original musical revue to raise funds for attending future conferences. Miss Myrtle L. Paetznick, Mr. Robert C. Wilson, Mr. C. Walter Alexis, and Mr. Rolland H. Taft took part in the performance.

The story took place in the Music Box Theatre, where producers, Otto Flim and Oscar Flam, played by William Morse and Ronald Carlson, were unable to find a show to produce. They finally discovered talent among their stagehands.

Robert Stowell whistled "Whispering," accompanied by Richard Sampson on the piano. Ellen Donaldson and Judy Vimmerstedt, two wardrobe mistresses, sang and danced to "I'm Always Chasing Rainbows." A hit of the show was Sharyn Erickson's interpretation of the art of song and dance, as a scrub-woman. Ballet master—Andy Tangalos introduced his drill team, "Sailors Beware," and also "Frankie and Johnny," a modern dance act done by Sylvia Snyder, Oreste Lucchesi and Rosemary Sinatra, accompanied by singer, Dolly Mazzone.

The second act featured soloists, Diane Johnson, Arnold Waznak, and Rosemary Contiguglia and the chorus singing four songs, including the theme. It was in the form of a minstrel show, with the four pixies: Wee Raindrop, Mr. Alexis, in Scottish kilts; Sunbeam, Mr. Taft, terribly bashful; Fleecy Cloud, Mr. Wilson, proud of his Russian dancing; and Ole Spectrum, very Swedish. Daniel McGrath, in a black tuxedo, presided as Master of Ceremonies.

Lilla Wilson, Mary Ann Butler, Sherdena Brackman, Ida Mae Dearing, Sylvia Thompson, and Virginia Scott presented a skit called "Slightly Exaggerated." Four fellows really got close shaves when Shirley Johnson, Althea Jones, Thelma Anderson, and Marjorie Nelson, a barbershop quartet, sang "Kentucky Babe" and "Moonlight Bay". Barbara Plummer and Tom Mulleavy, the well-known dancing team, danced to "Row! Row!"

Louanne Larson and Richard Sampson accompanied the complete performance which was directed by Miss Paetznick and Mr. Wilson.

PUBLIC SPEAKERS END FIFTY-SECOND YEAR

Of all events best remembered of the Lyceum year, probably the foremost will be that Lyceum-Hypatians' party, one cold night in January at Camp Onyahsa. After being cancelled time after time, it was finally set for January 18. Those who attended will undoubtedly recall the big blazing fire in the fireplace, the music, dancing, games, and above all, Mr. Wilson's famous Russian dance.

Grand-daddy of all JHS clubs, Lyceum is completing its fifty-second year at JHS. Again this year, the group under the leadership of Mr. Robert C. Wilson, has been a great help to the Varsity Debate team in obtaining drivers and judges for debates as well as presenting panel discussions.

In the Lyceum's annually sponsored "I Speak for Democracy" contest, Samuel Biondolillo captured the prize by defeating the other two contestants, George Crozier and Barbara Swanson. Another Lyceum activity was the participation of the members in "Over the Rainbow." Such annual events as the picnic and banquet have also been planned.

HYPATIANS ACHIEVE 1952 GOALS

Hypatians are rolling again—they've proved the old adage that you never know what to expect from a woman. Because of their originality they've been successful in all of their activities this year.

Hypatians is the girls' public speaking organization of JHS and the members strive to improve their speaking voices through debate, discussion, and programs in their meetings.

The year started out with the addition of ten sophomore girls and thirteen upperclass girls who sparked the meetings from the moment of their arrival. Mr. Robert C. Wilson, careworn but cheerful faculty adviser, started many a laugh not soon to be forgotten, such as the time he swallowed his pride and donned a sweater girl outfit for a chorus line in the Pretenders' assembly.

Hypatians have fun, but being women they like to accomplish things too. The highly successful fudge sale after one play, the equally good bake sale and the rewarding collaboration with Lyceum on the party at Camp Onyahsa in January prove that.

Lyceum has also livened other get-to-gethers. The day that six boys attended a meeting to plan the party proved hilarious, and although the boys seemed shocked by the lack of parliamentary procedure, they were amazed to see how much was accomplished by female methods.

One of the main Spring activities of Hypatians is the annual tea given for Junior High Freshmen to acquaint them with the organization. Around graduation time each year a Senior banquet is held and many pleasant memories are treasured from this last official meeting of the entire organization.

Hypatians have enjoyed one of their busiest years, and hope to remain, as in the past, one of the most active and profitable organizations in JHS.

Brooklyn Tournament Is Debate Highlight

"Do you have proof for that statement? You can't say that unless you prove it!" That's the general line of conversation which might be heard in debate headquarters, room 205, almost any afternoon.

Under the capable tutoring of Mr. Robert C. Wilson, it seems that the JHS "soap-box" orators have convinced their listeners—and the judges as well—in contests this season. The first venture into debate competition this season resulted in the acquisition of victor's laurels for the JHS group. The event was the Cortland Tournament, at which the "A" teams of Robert Nelson-George Crozier and Samuel Biondolillo-David Button won the New York State first place cup.

Aside from other debates and tournaments—Bradford, Aquinas, Meadville, Erie Academy, Canisius, Franklin, the Grove City Tournament and the Allegheny Tournament—one event was the highlight of the season. That was the New York State National Forensic League Tournament, held at St. John's Prep in Brooklyn, April 4-5. JHS representatives took part in the fields of debate, student congress, extemporaneous speaking and humorous declamation.

Charles E. Hall Teams Select U M T as Topic

One of the Jamestown High School's oldest and fondest customs is the Charles E. Hall Debate. This contest originated from the interest of a JHS debater, Charles E. Hall, who died during one of his active years at Jamestown High. This year's contest, pitting Juniors against Seniors, will probably go down in JHS annals as one of the most evenly matched in its history. Selections of the Class of 1953 are: Andrew Tangalos, Charles Hamlin and Donald O'Polka. This trio, coached by Rabbi Sydney Goldstein, will challenge the Senior team, George Crozier, Samuel Biondolillo, and Robert Nelson, who are coached by Daniel Isaacson, local attorney. The debate is set for the early part of June.

One of the most controversial subjects in the United States today, that of Universal Military Conscription, has been laid on the table for discussion. JHS students in the past have wholeheartedly supported and enjoyed this function and it certainly appears that 1952 will be no exception.

MAJORETTES
SHOW ABILITIES AT FOOTBALL GAMES

Strike up the band! Here it comes, led as usual by our eight high-stepping l'il majorettes. Four new majorettes were added to the line this year. In the fall our football games would not be complete without these girls to brighten up the field at half-time with their prancing and twirling routines. Their bright satin uniforms of red, white and blue are a treat for everyone to see.

After football season these girls are not seen until Spring when the parades begin. All heads are turned their way as they strut down the street leading our Jamestown High School Band.

JAMESTOWN HIGH SCHOO

The sparkling red and blue uniforms of the Jamestown High School Band have marched to another successful season. Once again under the baton of Director Delbert Vosburg, the musicians showed their versatility by playing—and playing well—during each phase of the season.

The marching band started in the Fall by playing and forming many intricate maneuvers at each of the football games. The long hours spent in rehearsal on the J. H. S. campus were rewarded with a trip to the game at Civic Stadium in Buffalo. The group expects to march in the Memorial Day parade once again this year.

The Concert Band outdid itself at each of its appearances. At the first concert presented by the Jamestown High School Music Department, the band played such favorites as "Symphony in B flat" by

BAND SHOWS VERSATILITY

Faucet and "A Tribute to Romberg." This performance was highlighted by the presentation of the novelty number "A Southern Wedding," which portrayed a marriage in Dixieland. Solo parts in this piece were given by Marian Mitchell, Grant Mahoney, and Jerome Anderson.

In the more classic type music, the great depth of the organization was used to an advantage in playing "Light Cavalry Overture" by Von Suppe. Again the versatility and competence of each section of the Band was accentuated by the performance of this stirring number.

ORCHESTRA TOURS GRADE S

If one should walk past Room 50 any Tuesday or Thursday, he would be sure to hear sweet music drifting from the instruments of the JHS orchestra which is practicing within.

On February 21st, the orchestra along with A'Cappella gave an assembly program, which consisted of both patriotic and popular songs.

During January these musicians went to most of the Jamestown elementary schools to explain their instruments and to play songs for the children.

They will give two concerts, during the spring term, one with the A'Cappella and one with both the band and A'Cappella. The first concert will be April 1st.

A'CAPPELLA CHOIR PRESENTS

Laughs, fun and serious work will be remembered by everyone in the A'Cappella Choir. Many laughs came on our trips, but fun was prevalent in class, too. There was much serious work, however, especially in January when Miss Goranson required a solo from every member.

Christmas was another thrilling season for the choir as they prepared for the vesper services. One of the most beautiful songs sung last Christmas was "St. Francis Prayer."

There were also two spring concerts. Because the first came just before Easter, the program included "The Holy City" and "Open the Gates of the Temple." The stage was decorated with a cross of

J.H.S. MUSICIANS "SWING 'N SWAY"

The newest of our musical organizations here at J. H. S. is the dance band. It was started by Mr. Delbert Vosburg four years ago, with a group of students who like to play music in the popular vein. It is a great deal of fun and good experience to play with the dance band.

Recently, the dance band's library has been replenished with some new tunes and, to play these new tunes, the outfit has received some new members. Unfortunately, about one-third of the members of the band are leaving J. H. S. this June, but this doesn't worry Mr. Vosburg because he has a good supply of juniors and sophomores to take over next year in the place of the old members. They will surely give it a new start.

The dance band plays at many school functions and they play after the football and basketball games. The colors of the band are displayed by maroon jackets and yellow ties while sharp blue stands hold the music for these musicians. Mr. Vosburg has done a splendid job with the dance band, giving it a diversified and modern selection of programs.

GRIDDERS LOSE ONLY ONE IN 1951

Hard work and long hours of practice rewarded the J.H.S. football team another successful season this year, as the Raiders, under the leadership of Coach Walter J. Colburn, finished with a 7—1 record.

Almost everyone believed Jamestown would lose the opener to Elmira South, but we came through to win 14—7. Jamestown also nipped Kenmore, Dunkirk, and Trott Vocational by scores of 14—6 and 21—2 respectively. Olean was also beaten 27—6.

Hostilities were resumed between J.H.S. and Warren High School, following a three-year lapse due to the controversial post-graduate rule. Warren came to town with a so-so record, but turned on the steam to win 6—0, on a muddy field. In the final clash, an underdog Raider team came from behind to edge North Tonawanda, 13—7.

An outstanding backfield man was Joe Pollino, who received an honorable mention award as fullback on the high school All-American team.

The sophomores did not have quite so successful a season as did their big brothers, winning three out of seven against extremely tough competition.

J. H. S. SEES THRILLING YEAR •• ON THE HARDWOOD ••

While their won-and-lost record was not sensational, the 1951-52 edition of the Red Raider basketball team provided fans more thrills and surprises than has any team for many years.

It's hard to pick out one game which was any more thrilling than another, but more people will probably remember that game with Hornell on February 23rd. Jamestown had never beaten a Hornell team on the basketball court up to this year, but behind the dead-eye shooting of Sam Tilaro, the Taftmen came off the floor with a 73-72 win.

The team was aptly named the "comeback kids" by several local sportswriters. At one time, Jamestown had won but three games and had come out on the short end on eight occasions. Following opening reverses to Erie Tech and Fredonia, Jamestown downed Warren and Gowanda, nipping the latter by only five points. The Raiders then lost to Falconer and beat Erie East, before hitting a five-game losing streak. One of these losses came at the hands of Fredonia again, which scored in the last five seconds to win, 62-61.

Jamestown then won five out of its last six games, gaining revenge on three teams which had beaten them earlier, Dunkirk, Falconer, and Southwestern. In the finals at Olean, Jamestown lost a 48-40 tilt to the Olean Huskies.

One team member was placed on the Lake Shore League All-Star team. That was Kenny Martin, who also finished third in the Lake Shore League scoring race.

Three members of this year's group of regulars will return to the cage wars next year. They are John Damond, Tom Adams, and Denny Johnson, along with a sophomore squad which compiled a record of 14 wins and three losses.

Coaches are: Rolland H. Taft and Allen F. Ayers, while the managers are: William Detally, Carl Hammerstrom and Douglas Smith.

CINDERMEN "BURN UP" TRACK

The crack of a gun and the sound of feet over a cinder track were common sounds heard on the J.H.S. track field prior to and during a very successful track season. Coach Rolland H. Taft thought he had a team with great potentialities and his thoughts were confirmed by their first win over Salamanca. Then followed another win over Olean 61-43, but on the next outing, due to unfortunate circumstances, they lost to a powerful Hornell team. With this one loss under their belt they rebounded by winning the county meet and capturing first place at a triangular meet with Dunkirk and Kenmore.

They wound up the season with a hard-earned third place at the sectional meet.

The boys who are credited with bringing home the victories in the respective events are as follows:

Bill Brown—100 and 200 yard dash
Chuck Dahlberg—half mile
Don Alloway—440 yard
George Wilson—pole vault
Sam Guiffreda—shot put

J.H.S. TEAM SHINES ON DIAMOND

JHS 1951 edition of the Red Raiders' baseball team hung up its spikes with a record of nine wins, two losses and a tie.

That tie, a rare thing in baseball, occurred in the Sectional Finals at Hamburg. Jamestown came from way behind to know the count at 9-all when, to coin a phrase: "The umpire homeward plodded his weary way, and left the game to darkness, and a tie."

Jamestown was noted for its ability to "knock the cover off the ball." At one stretch, the local boys rang up a total of 43 runs in three straight games, while holding the opposition to only four. Dick Wright led the fence-busting parade with a .486 mark, followed by Greg Mulleavy's .430 average and Junie Johnson, who batted .366.

No team can do without a pitcher, however, and Bob Gunnell turned in a splendid job in that line. He won seven games, lost one and turned in three shut-outs. He was backed up by Jim Schmitt, who will return this year.

Ken Martin, Dan McGrath and Schmitt will be the only lettermen back this year. Additional help will come from the 1951 Sophomore Squad, which won two and lost four.

Cheerleaders Inspire Teams Throughout Year

At the beginning of the school year, all those girls interested in cheerleading began to practice, after school. After three weeks, eliminations started and the cheerleaders for the year were chosen. There were two seniors and four juniors. The seniors chosen were Dianne Sanford and Betty Hoff, while the juniors were Mary Lou Rigoli, Ann Keyes, Nancy Edson, and Janice Leathers.

The girls set Wednesday as their practice day and then set about to obtain uniforms. After making their own green skirts, they purchased their white sweaters. They will be allowed to keep these uniforms at the end of the year.

At the beginning of the year, a new set of rules and regulations were written to be followed by cheerleaders in the coming years.

A clinic was held this year in Niagara Falls, where the cheerleaders from the surrounding schools met and discussed their problems. Cheers were exchanged and many new ideas came back with the girls.

The cheerleaders sold tickets before the games and chartered the buses for the out-of-town games. Several pep assemblies were also held during the year to teach the students new cheers and encourage them to come to the games.

The girls are all sorry that their cheerleading duties together are finished.

J-CLUB FIGHTS FAILING SPIRIT

For the past few years many students and faculty members at J. H. S. have been concerned about the apparent lack of interest in school functions. However, this year has witnessed a revival in school spirit at most athletic contests—a fact which is due largely to the work of the J-Club of J. H. S.

The foremost aim of the J-Club is to bolster school spirit, and once again under the guidance of Miss Gretchen Sanders and Coach Rolland Taft, its members have achieved this goal. Sponsoring dances, pep rallies, and event programs have been steps along their way to success.

Membership in the J-Club is confined to those athletes who have been outstanding enough in their field to merit a varsity letter "J". A membership in this organization, therefore, comes only as a result of many hours of hard work.

Officers were elected as follows:

Secretary ..... Ann Keyes
Treasurer ..... George Wilson

INTRAMURALS PRODUCE POETS

Boys' Intramurals, which were originally started to provide athletic activity for those who could not make varsity squads, this year turned out a number of fine poets and artists.

Songs and slogans filled the PA announcements daily during the basketball campaign. Home Room 26, better known as "Findley's Flock" walked off with the school championship, then lost a 47-45 decision to the teachers in the Annual Student-Faculty game put on by the Key Club.

Home Room 222 took the honors in the touch football competition, and sent paper wreaths to the rooms that they defeated.

In bowling, the Jamestown team won the county championship at Dunkirk, then advanced into the sectional finals at Gowanda where they finished third.

A foul-shooting contest was also held, with Dixon Jones of Room 304 capturing top spot with a record of 39 out of 50. He was challenged by Mr. Allen F. Ayers and defeated, 39-38, during the half-time intermission of the Student-Faculty game.

A table tennis tournament was also held, the winners clashing with champions of other schools in the area in conjunction with the volleyball tournament held in Jamestown in the spring.

GIRLS' SPORTS

This year, Miss Virginia Yerdon from Bradford, Pennsylvania, joined the physical education department, and she and Miss Gretchen Sander have worked with the girls, coaching them in different sports.

Soccer was first on the 1951-1952 schedule. In September, the girls went outside in the field to play, where they discovered that kicking the ball wasn't so easy as they had imagined.

Cageball turned out better than soccer, with the winners of each class playing the other winners. The "15 rahs" went to the seniors and juniors of the third period, team 1. A get-acquainted playday was held on October 17, with participation by all the schools in this vicinity.

Basketball was the highlight of the year. Girls played enthusiastically as they dribbled, shot and guarded. The gym classes had contests between them and sometimes these games were as rough as those on the boys' side of the gym.

The girls came back in January, to start the Leap Year off with volleyball. After learning the fundamentals of the game, they enjoyed the tournaments to such an extent that homeroom 110 challenged the feminine members of the faculty to a volleyball bout.

Bowling was a sport done in a new way this year. The Iroquois Indians were the champions of J. H. S., who represented us in a playday, February 18, at which time they came in first with Marie Contiguglia as captain. Every Monday, groups went to the Pine Street Alley to bowl.

Another opportunity was the water-safety classes held on Friday night at the Y.M.C.A. The course included preliminary swim training, life saving and a water-safety instructor's course.

Softball was the last event of the 1951-1952 season. First, the girls practiced inside to learn how to pitch, catch, bat and throw the ball, then went outside to play the game.

Sincere thanks to Sylvia Snyder, who created and supervised our theme of "Alice in the Wonderland of J. H. S."

It is through the efforts of many people that the Red and Green becomes a reality. We are indebted to the photographers, caption writers, and the typists, whose generous and able contributions have added to the success of this book. Our special acknowledgments go to the art staff whose clever and painstaking work appears herein abundantly. Alice found a wonderland at J.H.S. through the guidance of her creator, Sylvia Snyder and her friends of the art staff, including David Johnson, Gordon Benson, Raymond Ludwiczak, Francis P. Mistretta, Dan Anderson, and others.

We are truly grateful to all these people and to the advisers who have given so much time and effort to this production.

In Memoriam

In April, we were saddened by the death, in Sarasota, Florida, of MR. MILTON J. FLETCHER, Superintendent Emeritus, at the age of 90. Mr. Fletcher served as principal of the Jamestown High School during the years between 1899-1919. He later served as Superintendent of Schools. Remembered and respected by the faculty and administration of the entire city, he is also revered by the classes of J. H. S. for his work on the Alma Mater.

[Mr. Fletcher's death (April 4, 1952) occurred after this book had gone to press; therefore, it is impossible to place the obituary notice in its proper place.]
